Grant Programs Illinois State Library

The Illinois State Library administers grants for library and literacy services, programs and initiatives. Grant programs provide access to ideas, resources and information through the efforts of Illinois' academic libraries, public libraries, school libraries, special libraries, regional library systems, literacy agencies and partnering workplaces.

Most of the grant programs are competitive, unless announced otherwise. Each grant program has its own application processes, criteria and deadlines. The authority for awarding grants is based on State and Federal Statutes and Rules subject to annual appropriations.
