A. Borrowers and Fees

General

The primary purpose of this Library is to provide Library service to the residents of the Library district. In addition, these services are available, with special provisions, to nonresidents wishing to use them. Borrowers may check out as many books and magazines as desired subject to the reasonable discretion of the Library Director provided that it does not deplete the collection in one area. The checkout of other materials may be restricted based on the demand for the materials.

Application Requirements

All Library card applicants must provide their name, at least one form of contact information (phone number, email, physical address) date of birth and a signature. Proof of residency will be verified by the applicant providing a photo ID or one of the following documents: current month's utility bill, current lease agreement, and/or property tax statement. Other forms of contact information and identification may be accepted at the discretion of the Director. In the case the applicant's ID does not match their residence, they will be required to provide ID as well as two of the following documents: current month's utility bill, current lease agreement, and/or property tax statement. Other forms of contact information and identification may be accepted at the discretion of the Director.

Residents age 18 or over: Upon proper application, or presentation of expired borrower's card, any adult age 18 or over shall be issued a Library card which entitles them to use the facilities of the Library and to check out materials. Library cards shall be valid for three years from the date of issuance, or until termination of residence in the district, whichever period is shorter.

Residents under 18 years of age: The signature of one parent or guardian is required on the Library card applications of all residents under 18 years of age. The parent(s) or guardian(s) of residents under the age of 18 will be held accountable for the items checked out on the youth's card.

Nonresident borrowers: Any family not residing in the Library district, upon proper application and payment of the nonresident fee, may be issued a Library card which entitles members of the family to use the facilities of the Library and to check out materials. Such cards shall be valid for one year. Nonresident card fees are not refundable. Nonresidents who display a current real estate tax receipt for property within the Morris Area Public Library District may receive a nonresident card without charge. Any rules cited above pertaining to residents shall likewise apply to nonresidents.

Application Renewal Requirements: Current Library card holders must show a current photo ID indicating residency in the Library district. If the address on the current photo ID does not match current address, Library card holders must present as proof of residency one of the following documents: current month's utility bill, a current lease agreement and/or property tax statement. Library cards are non-transferable. Cardholders are responsible for notifying the Library of lost or stolen cards.

B. Confidentiality of Records

The Morris Area Public Library abides by the Library Records Confidentiality Act, 75 ILCS 70/1, which provides that registration and circulation records are confidential. Registration records include any information a patron provides in order for that patron to become eligible to borrow books and other materials. Circulation records include all information identifying the patron borrowing particular books or materials. The Morris Area Public Library does not make available registration or circulation records to any party except in compliance with the law. The Morris Area Public Library does not make available lists of registered Library patrons except in compliance with the law. Law enforcement officers requesting confidential information may be asked to complete the Officer's Request for Confidential Library Information form (Appendix C).

C. Second Party Authorization of Hold Pick-Up

This policy change has been approved by the attorney to allow patrons to submit written consent for second-party authorization to pick-up and check out materials reserved on their behalf.

D. Fees and Charges

In order to proceed with open and equal access to all Library Materials, the Library is Fine Free and does not collect overdue fines for general library materials housed in the Morris Area Public Library. However, the fine schedule and due dates of the Prairie Cat Consortium (or other lending consortium in use) material superseded those of the Morris Area Public Library. In addition, the Morris Area Public Library of Things is exempt and its items are not Fine-Free. For all Morris Library Fine-Free collections items, after 30 days, any items not returned will be declared lost. Patrons will be billed for the lost items and borrowing privileges will be suspended. If a patron returns an item that has been damaged beyond the point where it can be returned to circulation or if the patron loses an item, a notice will be sent to the patron assessing the cost to replace the damaged item. Notifications will be made by phone, email and or text message. It is the patron's responsibility to keep account of information current. Failure to receive the notification does not absolve the library card holder from replacement fines. The replacement cost shall be equal to the cost of the items and processing costs. Borrowing privileges will be reinstated when the patron's account is brought into good standing or at the discretion of the Director.

E. Computer and Internet Use

General Guidelines

1. Persons using the Morris Area Public Library District's (the Library) Internet and computers are subject to the policies of the Library.
2. Computers and Internet access are available for public use on a first-come, first-serve basis.
3. Patrons must have a valid Library card in good standing (defined as less than $10.00 in fees/fines and/or less than 5 overdue items) from the Library to use the computers or Internet. Those from other PrairieCat libraries who have accounts in good standing may receive a guest pass for free. Any patron from a PrairieCat Library whose account is not in good standing will not be given computer or Internet access until the account is in good standing. Anyone requesting use of a Library computer who does not have an account from a PrairieCat Library may receive one guest pass per day.
4. Patrons who use Library accounts other than their own or who allow others to use their account will have their privileges suspended.

5. The use of the Library's Internet and computers is a privilege, not a right, and the Library reserves the right to limit, refuse, and/or ban any patron from using Library equipment and computers. A suspension of privileges may be appealed in writing to the Library Director.
6. Persons age 10 and under must be directly supervised at all times by a parent or guardian age 18 or older to use the Library's computers or Internet. The parent/guardian and youth must sit at the same computer station or immediately next to each other's stations.
7. Persons aged 11 through 17 may use a computer or the Library's Internet with a Parental Consent Form (Appendix D) on file at the Library.
8. The Library prohibits the loading of personal software on all Library computers.
9. The Library provides printing services for a per-page fee. Patrons are responsible for previewing printed items and are responsible for paying for all printouts. Earphones or earbuds are required for listening to audio on the computers; patrons may use their personal equipment for this purpose or purchase earbuds at the circulation desk.
10. When a computer session ends, each computer restarts and wipes clean any files saved to the computer by its previous user. Flash drives may be purchased at the circulation desk to save files before a session closes.
11. The Library's staff may provide assistance to patrons in the use of electronic information networks and other software programs installed on the Library's computers as time and staff knowledge permits. The Library offers computer classes to assist patrons wishing to improve their computer skills.
12. Use of any public computer or Internet connection at the Library constitutes acceptance of this policy and related procedures.

2. The Library respects the confidentiality of records, electronic or otherwise, that identify individual users and link them to search strategies, sites accessed, or other specific data about the information they retrieved or sought to retrieve. The Library respects its patrons' privacy; however, it is unable to guarantee privacy in a public forum.
3. Library patrons have the right to equitable access to electronic information networks.

4. Library patrons have the right to access and read all Library service policies and discuss questions with appropriate Library staff.

1. Use of Library computers is at the discretion of Library staff.

Internet Usage

1. The Internet is an unregulated medium connecting people and information sources from around the world. The Library does not and cannot control the information content available through global resources such as information obtained from outside sources via the Internet. Internet resources enhance and supplement resources that are available locally within the Library. Library users must be aware that this Library does not exercise control over information obtained via the Internet and must keep in mind the following points when evaluating information obtained via the Internet:
2. Information may or may not be reliable or from a reliable source.
3. Information may or may not be accurate.
4. Information may or may not be current and up to date.
5. The Library is a family-friendly establishment. 7. Links to information on the Internet may not always be valid, and particular information sites on the Internet may sometimes be unavailable and this unavailability often occurs unpredictably.
8. The availability of information on the Internet does not constitute endorsement of the content by the Library.
9. The Library urges patrons to be informed consumers and carefully evaluate information obtained via the Internet. Library staff may be available to assist patrons in making judgments about the reliability or currency of certain types of Internet information sources, but are unable to provide definitive analysis of particular sources due to the extremely large variety and volume of information available via the Internet.
10. The Library is not responsible for damages or losses, indirect or direct, arising from a patrons' use of Internet information resources.

Internet Connection

1. The Library offers wireless Internet access for patron use. The Library's wireless access points may be limited at the Library's discretion. There may be times when the user may not be able to access a given site on the Internet due to circumstances beyond the control of the Library.

F. Service to Patrons With Disabilities

The Morris Area Public Library offers the same services to patrons with disabilities as to all other segments of the population. In addition to those services, the Morris Area Public Library acts as facilitator between the patron and Services to the Blind and Physically Handicapped, offers home delivery to patrons with disabilities which prevent them from coming to the Library, and welcomes service animals in the Library.

Service Animal Policy

1. Policy Statement: In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), service animals are welcomed and permitted in all facilities. Per ADA, service animals are dogs or miniature horses individually trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability. For details, please see ADA requirements for service animals. No other animals are permitted.

2. Definition and Scope: In regards to a miniature horse, they generally range in height from 24 inches to 34 inches measured to the shoulders and generally weigh between 70 and 100 pounds. Per ADA, size and weight can be factors in determining if the Library is able to accommodate this type of service animal.
3. Behavioral Guidelines: Service animals must be in physical proximity with their handler and under handler control at all times. They may not be left unattended. Service animals must not display disruptive behavior such as barking and growling. Service animal handlers are responsible for any upkeep or clean-up of the animal. Staff may ask a person to remove from the Library any animal including a service animal, when that animal's behavior poses a direct threat to the health and safety of others, as in accordance with ADA guidelines.

Sensory Room Policy

1. Policy Statement: The Sensory Room of the Library is for use by small groups limited to five people in total. The purpose of this room is to provide a space away from the possibly noisy environment of the rest of the Youth Services Department. Use of this room should be consistent with the objective of the Library, which is to provide a suitable environment for learning for all ages.
2. Scope and Definition: Use of the Sensory Room will be arranged at the Circulation Desk. The Sensory Room will be used as it becomes available on a first come, first served basis. A waiting list will be kept if the room is occupied. No advance registration will be taken. The Sensory Room may be used for one hour. When the one-hour time limit expires, the room will revert to a first-in-first-out policy as administered by Library staff. A valid photo ID must be presented for an individual using the Sensory Room (or their legal guardian).
3. The Sensory Room will be limited to the current Fire Code occupancy requirements. No extra chairs will be allowed. A caretaker must be present at all times with patron(s) using the Sensory Room. Activities in the Sensory Room should not materially or substantially interfere with the proper functions of the Library. Prohibited activities include: causing excessive noise, creating safety hazards or security risks, and creating other disturbances that violate the Library Patron Behavior Policy. The Library may also deny access to the Sensory Room to individuals that have failed to follow the rules and regulations for the room's use. See the procedures posted in the Sensory Room and in the Appendix N for more information.
4. All individuals are responsible for the condition of the room and should return furniture to the original arrangement. Patrons of the room are responsible for any repair costs for any damage to the room incurred during its use.
