Morris Area Public Library to Celebrate 100 Years of Winnie-the-Pooh

Morris, IL - October 2, 2026 - Morris, IL — It's a special birthday celebration 100 years in the making! Join the Morris Area Public Library for a special celebration of 100 years of Winnie-the-Pooh, friendship, adventure, and the Hundred Acre Wood!

The library will celebrate Pooh Bear's 100th birthday on Wednesday, October 14, with a morning filled with stories, creativity, and a special movie viewing.

The celebration will begin at 10AM with a special Winnie-the-Pooh Storytime, featuring stories inspired by the beloved bear and his friends from the Hundred Acre Wood. Following storytime, children can enjoy a special birthday craft to help mark the occasion.

But the celebration doesn't end there! Families are invited to stay after storytime for a special viewing of a Winnie-the-Pooh movie. It's the perfect opportunity to settle in, spend time together, and continue the celebration with Pooh, Piglet, Tigger, Eeyore, and the rest of the Hundred Acre Wood gang.

"Winnie-the-Pooh has been bringing friendship, imagination, and adventure to generations of readers," said Audrey Greiff, Youth Services Assistant of the Morris Area Public Library. "We're excited to celebrate this special milestone with our community and invite families to spend the day enjoying some classic Pooh Bear fun together."

The celebration is free and open to the public. Families are welcome to attend the storytime and craft, stay for the movie, or enjoy as much of the celebration as their schedule allows.

Come celebrate 100 years of friendship, adventure, and the Hundred Acre Wood!
